I can't believe what the DOJ is calling a penalty. You are rewarding an criminal monopoly by allowing them to hurt competition in this MS marketing scheme. Everyone knows MS has a low software presence in the school market and what a better way to take over this market too by being "punished" into donating free software. Boy, I bet that hurts. Added market share and lots of great PR. I can't believe you don't see the truth in this deal. It will hurt everyone, except MS.

Please PUNISH their crimes, not help them.
